AHS Seniors Brighten Sonoma State

About 100 members of the Albany High School senior class made the traditional trip to Sonoma State hospital shortly before Christmas.

Each senior brought a wrapped gift and package of home-baked cookies for the party. There were two Santas, Bill Hoggart and Pat Hughes.

Playing with and talking to the retarded children at the hospital made the seniors realize how fortunate they are and they enjoyed making the Christmas season brighter for many children.

Chaperoned by teachers, the class made the trip in a chartered bus.

plunging down an embankment into the bedroom in which they were sleeping. The investigating officer told them they were "very lucky."

This apparently is the last in a series of accidents in that area. Mrs. Asp says they live in constant fear that next time they will not be lucky.

Since 1958, when they replaced a retaining wall and did cement work at a personal cost of more than $4,000, the Asps have attempted to get the City to do something about storm drains. They were told nothing can be done until Hillside (just above their property) is repaired.

They also have requested stop signs at Hillside and Cerrito with no results.

Mr. and Mrs. Asp have several requests for action. They say they have tried to work through City Hall. There is certainly another side. It isn't all that easy at City Hall either.

BILL CHAMBERS is the new Albany March of Dimes chairman, we've been told. Apparently nobody informed Harold Van Coops.

FOR A WHILE there, it was Albany Day at Children's Hospital on Christmas morning. The Cully family brought their performing poodles to entertain the children and a young man, Gary Delucchi, celebrated Christmas by visiting hospitalized tots and giving them gifts. I was able to get special consideration for a little friend, Wendy Wells, who is having a rotten time with a brain tumor. At one point, Wendy could not speak, but learned sign language for "I love you," which she used as her communication. Now she speaks haltingly, but her future seems anything but bright.

Mary started her poodle show in Wendy's room and Gary started his gift-giving there. That afternoon, Wendy went home on a pass for a few hours. It must have been her most wonderful Christmas.

Mary cries over the children—those with leukemia, cystic fibrosis, sickle cell, etc., but she always comes back. This was Cozy's 10th and final year of performing. She started and

Husband and Wife Team to Head Albany March of Dimes Campaign

In a way, it was almost inevitable that Bill Chambers should become heavily involved with the March of Dimes. As his wife Doris worked her way from Mother Marcher through area chairmanship to co-chairmanship for the City of Albany, Bill was right in there, lending a helping hand. So, when he was approached to be Community Chairman for his city, he was ready and experienced. "This job," says Bill, "is similar to my construction job. We are building in many ways, starting with a foundation of education and research, with the ultimate hope of building a stronger, healthier society, with birth defects eradicated."

After receiving congratulations from County March of Dimes Chairman, Sheriff Frank I. Madigan (center) Bill and Doris discovered their first duty was to drop a contribution into the Sheriff's March of Dimes canister, so they obliged with three coins—representative of their own three healthy children.

As chairman, Chambers is responsible for assisting Mothers' March chairmen and workers, overseeing placement of collection canisters, coordinating community activities and acting as liaison with County and National March of Dimes offices.

Six Winners Named For Senior Parent Holiday 'Contest'

Albany High Senior Parents recently held a "contest" as a money raiser for the senior graduation party.

Prizes included three holiday food baskets, and three holiday cheer baskets.

Among the happy winners were Mary Ross, Sharon Bennett and Mary Hartung.

Those receiving cheer baskets included Marion Crowson, Elena Romero and Bob Hughes.

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Yoshioka, ways and means chairman for the parents group, the fund raiser was a big success.

The date of the senior class party is June 14.

Note of Thanks

I would like to thank all the people of Albany who signed the petition. As of Dec. 27, 1973 the Albany Postal Carriers will not be moved to Berkeley, as per letter to box holders from postmaster W. W. Wollman.

I will send the petitions to Mr. E. T. Klassen, Postmaster General, Washington, D.C., that the city of Albany should have its own post office and not a branch of Berkeley.

Thank you again,
George Bernard

Council Adopts Revised Open Space Element

Albany City Councilmen unanimously adopted the revised open space element of the city's General Plan at its 40-minute session Dec. 26.

Approximately 140-150 acres have been designated as open space in Albany, including about 105 acres of the Albany Isles project.

The ridge of Albany Hill from the north end of Taylor to the south end of Taft will be preserved as an overlook. No structures will be permitted within 100 feet east of the ridge line or within 200 feet west of the line. This effectively bans construction on the west side of the hill on property owned by Golden Gate Development Company. The three acres of private property have been designated open space in a scenic preservation category.

Councilmen deleted item 3 in suggestions from Joan Lamph, Senior Planner from Duncan and Jones, urban planning and designing consultants. That item would have included the shoreline in the open space category for scenic preservation. Councilman Joe Caravaro pointed out that this area is under the jurisdiction of Bay Conservation and Development Commission and any building would need prior approval from BCDC.

He added the area might be useful in the future as a ferry dock or in some other form of transportation. Mayor Lewis Howell agreed.

City Council adopted Ordinance 73-012, which suspends Use permits for home occupations for a period of 120 days.

A letter from Mayor Howell to William J. Sullivan, regional manager of the U.S. Post Office, protesting removal of postal carriers from the Albany post office was read. The mayor then read a memo from Administrative Officer James B. Turner stating he had received a call from the Berkeley Postmaster notifying Albany that plans to remove the carriers had been abandoned.

Following approval by Police Chief James Simmons, Council went on record as having no objections to an application for on-sale beer and wine at the Bacchanal, 1369 Solano Ave.

Mayor Howell wished everyone a happy and prosperous new year as the meeting ended at 8:40 p.m.

Albany Pool Scheduled To Reopen Monday

The Albany Pool will reopen Monday, January 7th, 1974, after having been closed for several weeks for repairs and cleaning.

Winter swimming instructional program for children and adults will begin on January 7, 1974. Registration for 10 week Winter classes will continue until classes are filled. You may register by calling 526-7386 or coming to the Pool at 1311 Portland Avenue.

Time for these classes Monday and Wednesday is 5-6 and Tuesday and Thursday, 5-6:30

(one half hour classes with one half hour free swim time).

Adult classes through Adult School will begin Monday-Wednesday evenings 6:30-9:30 p.m. Calisthenics in the Water will be Monday and Wednesday, 8:30-9:30 p.m., Tuesday 6:30-7:30 p.m.

There will be an afternoon Calisthenics in the Water class offered through the pool on Tuesday and Thursday, 3:30-4:30 p.m. for four weeks, commencing on January 8.

A four week Parents and Tots' class will also be offered on Tuesday and Thursday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.

There will be recreational swimming Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings 7:30-9:20 and on Saturday, 3:45-5 p.m.

The pool is also available for private parties by calling 526-6441.

Senior Parents Plan Annual Party June 14

Graduating seniors will celebrate their night party at Holiday House in Hayward this year. Senior parents for the class of '74 have plans in full swing after meeting and selecting committee chairmen earlier in the school year.

Co-chairmen for the event are Bill and Sherry Wray. Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. Mary Yoshioka already has several fund raisers under way.

The list of officers also includes Secretary, Mrs. E. C. (Betty) Van Eckhardt; treasurer, Mrs. Herbert (Pat) Rounds; financial secretary, Mrs. Howard (Sally) Hein; publicity, Mrs. Charles (Joy) Allen; activities, Mr. and Mrs. Al (Joanne) Hiseck; transportation, Armond Christophe; telephone, Mrs. Frank (Lois) Alesandro; decorations, Mrs. Chuck Hazardbidan; Mrs. Art Overman; prizes, Mrs. Clarence Harlan; entertainment, Mrs. Janice Lauters; security, chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rosano and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Helwig.

Postal Officials Scrap Plans To Move Carriers

The U.S. Postal Service has scrapped plans to move the Albany letter carriers from the Albany Branch to the Carrier Annex at Eighth and Gilman Streets.

After reviewing this recommendation, Berkeley postal officials have decided not to make this change.

Postmaster William Wollman stated that letter carriers for Albany will continue to be stationed at the Albany Branch Post Office.

ended her show business career at Children's. The little poodle has brought untold joy to sick children and she's receiving her own certificate this year. It's the first time this award has gone to a dog.

THERE WERE only two items and a notice on the City Council agenda for last night's meeting. Administrative Officer James B. Turner had a communication regarding the Veteran's Day Parade (Albany had invited the parade for 1975, but at the December Mayor's Conference it sounded as if that year is already taken) and Turner and Bette Rhodes, Finance Director, had a recommendation regarding time deposits. There was also a notice of a hearing before the State Public Utilities commission.

THE KLAUS DAHLKES of Marin Avenue had their Christmas gifts stolen shortly before Christmas. They came from their children and the couple couldn't replace them. Sam's Pharmacy heard of their plight and gave them a large gingerbread house. Mrs. Dahlke wrote, "We wish to thank them through the paper so others will know there are some good people around."

BLESS 'EM and miss 'em: Bernice and Ed White renewed their subscription to the Times. Now living in Montana, they lived in Albany for 25 years and Bernice was part of the Albany school administration staff for 16 years. They report their weather is much nicer than news media indicate. They had some snow on Dec. 18 and were hoping for a white Christmas. The Christmas of 1972 in Montana reminded them of Albany.

ALBANY LIONS contributed to a joint Christmas letter this year and split proceeds between Children's Hospital and the Albany fund for Christmas baskets. Nice guys, those.

PARISHIONERS at Grace Lutheran Church quietly contributed to a secret fund to send Former Pastor and Mrs. O. R. Janke back to the Midwest to visit his mother for Christmas. The check was a surprise gift to the couple at the Christmas fellowship dinner Dec. 14.

GOLDEN GATE FIELDS opens Feb. 8. That's good news for some of our readers who had news for others.

PLEASANTON DEMOLAYS, including Mike and Tim Russo, sons of the former Margery Hobson, who lived on San Carlos and went to Marin school, used money they had earned throughout the year to buy poinsettia plants for each patient at Claremont Convalescent hospital in Berkeley. That was a nice thing for them to do.

Even more confusing, federal regulations require substantial interest penalties for early withdrawals from certificate accounts.

Put an end to the confusion about your savings.

Take the time to find out specifics. Call your Direct Line to Security... (800) 772-3999. If you're already a customer of Security Savings, great! But you don't have to be to call. You might be confused about the savings certificate that's about to mature from some other S & L, or a bank. Or you may not have one yet, but are thinking about getting one.

Whatever the case, give us a call. We're serious about answering your questions about savings. We'll talk about interest rates, insurance of accounts, federal regulations that apply, what to do when your savings certificate matures, free services, special programs for savers, and a lot more, so long as it applies to your savings. What could be more important to us?

Beauty Reminders

The two most expressive parts of a woman are her hands and face. Here are some beauty tips from the new St. Joseph Family Almanac Calendar, available free at local pharmacies who purchase the Calendars to give to customers: To keep that glowing, healthy complexion remember that removing makeup is just as important as putting it on. Always remove all traces with a cream or gel before going to bed to allow your skin to breathe while you rest. Stale makeup clogs pores and invites infection. Keeping your hands in equally good shape is difficult because almost every daily task is harmful to their appearance. The only way to fight back is to keep protective plastic gloves handy, and pamper your hands with creams and moisturizers.
